MARKS GRAY SHAREHOLDER, GISELLE CARSON NAMED PRESIDENT OF THE JACKSONVILLE BAR ASSOCIATION

Jacksonville, FLA (July 7, 2015) Marks Gray, P.A. is proud to announce attorney Giselle Carson was sworn in as president of the Jacksonville Bar Association. Ms. Carson, a shareholder with the Marks Gray, P.A. law firm, practices primarily in U.S. and global immigration. Ms. Carson speaks and writes extensively on immigration issues and matters affecting individuals and businesses.

“Giselle Carson has distinguished herself for years not only as an extremely talented and dedicated lawyer, but as an insightful, and innovative leader,” said Jerry Weedon, president of Marks Gray, P.A. “She has served both the legal community and the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce as a distinguished leader. I am certain she will continue to serve the Jacksonville Bar Association very, very well.”

The Jacksonville Bar Association started in 1897. Throughout the years, the Bar has provided networking opportunities, important updates and information on practice areas, committees that give back to the legal profession, the Lawyer Referral Service that allows members to expand their practice by serving clients and more.

Ms. Carson has held a number of positions throughout her career, most recently as an advisor on the board of Jacksonville University's Public Policy Institute; board member of Jacksonville Aviation Authority and the Jacksonville Sports Council.
