Michael A. Manning

JACKSONVILLE, FLA. (March 11, 2019) – Marks Gray, P.A., is pleased to welcome Michael A. Manning to our firm as our newest associate attorney.

Michael A. Manning practices in the area of commercial litigation, with a focus on government liability, medical liability, professional liability and licensing, and trucking and transportation. He recently joined the firm after moving to Jacksonville from Tampa, Florida where he practiced with Goodis, Thompson & Miller. “We are delighted to have Michael with Marks Gray,” said the firm president, Frederick H. Kent, III. “His experience will enhance our current capabilities and our ability grow in new directions.”

Mr. Manning received his undergraduate degree from Florida State University and his J.D. from Stetson University, where he received the William F. Blews Pro Bono Service Award for completing over 120 hours of legal pro bono work during law school. Mr. Manning served as a prosecutor in the Twelfth Judicial Circuit in Manatee County, where he prosecuted crimes ranging from misdemeanors to complex felonies. During his years as a prosecutor, he litigated hundreds of cases and tried over forty trials to verdict.

Mr. Manning is a member of the Florida Bar Association, the Jacksonville Bar Association, and the Florida Defense Lawyers Association. He is licensed to practice in all Florida state courts and the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida.
